

2007 SNZ UMPIRE RULE EXAM

			True/False Yes/ No
1	R1 Sec 26	With a runner on 1 st base, the batter hits to the 2 nd base fielder who tags the runner from 1 st before throwing to the 1 st base fielder. Both runners are put out. This is considered a double play.	T
2	R1 Sec 38	Foul territory is any part of the playing field that is not included in fair territory.	T
3	R1 Sec 85	A runner is any offensive player of the team on the field, who has finished a turn at bat, reached first base, and has not yet been put out.	F
4	R1 Sec 37b	It is considered a fair ball, when a batted ball bounces over 3 rd base and lands just outside the foul line.	T
5	R1 Sec5	A direct line between bases is known as the base line.	T
6	R1 Sec 32	A fielder is any defensive player of the team not at bat.	T
7	R1 sec 42	A bat that becomes dented during play is an illegal bat.	T
8	R1 Sec 65b	The act of a defensive player, who impedes the progress of a runner legally running the bases, whilst not in possession of the ball, nor in the act of fielding a batted ball is ruled as obstruction	T
9	R1 Sec 98	A batter completes his turn at bat once he is either put out, or becomes a batter-runner.	T
10	R1 Sec 93	A team member includes anyone authorized to sit on the team bench	T
11	R1 Sec 101	A wild throw is any play in which a ball is thrown from one fielder to another, and cannot be caught or controlled, and is not blocked and remains in play.	T
12	R6 Sec 2a	The pitch starts after the hands have been placed together, and one hand is taken off the ball	T
13	R5 Sec 8a	The Offense may have up to three charged conferences in one inning provided it does not exceed three, for a regulation seven innings game.	F
14	R 8 Sec 2d 2	The batter-runner is out, when on ball 4, he enters the team area to return a bat before advancing to 1 st Base.	T
15	R 5 Sec 8b 2	A coach, having advised a substitution, may then cross the foul line to talk with any defensive player without a charged conference being imposed.	T
16	R6 Sec 1e	A pitcher must bring his body to a complete stop for not less than 2 seconds and not more than 10 seconds.	F
17	R1 Sec 2a	An appeal play is a play which an umpire may not make a ruling until appealed by a member of the defensive team, prior to the next legal pitch.	F
18	R1 Sec 9	An offensive player in the batters box with the intention of aiding his team to score runs, shall be referred to as a batter until he is declared out, or becomes a batter-runner.	T
19	R1 Sec 13	A thrown ball touching a base coach accidentally (in or out of the coach's box)is not a blocked ball	T
20	R1 Sec 19	The manager of a team is considered to be the head coach.	T
21	R8 Sec 8h & Effect	When a batter is called out for interference. All runners must return to the last base legally touched at the time of the interference.	T
22	R1 sec 45	An illegal player is any player entering the game unreported to the plate umpire.	T
23	R1 sec 55	An infielder is any fielder who is generally positioned anywhere near or within the lines of the base paths forming fair territory.	T
24	R1 sec 61	A fielder may touch a base with any part of his body provided the ball is securely held, on a force play.	T

25	R1 Sec 66	The offensive team is the team in the field.	F
26	R 1 Sec 15	B5 hits a long fly ball to the outfield fence. F7 attempting to make the catch tips the ball over the outfield fence. Before it touches the ground, F8 reaches over the fence and catches the ball. RULING: As the ball has not yet become dead, this is a legal catch	T
27	R5 Sec 8b	The defense may have one charged conference per innings. The penalty for exceeding their charged conferences is the ejection of the manager or head coach.	F
28	R 1 Sec 98	Brown is at bat with 2 balls & 1 strike. On the next pitch, thinking it is strike 3, he runs to 1 st base, where he is thrown out prior to reaching the base. On seeing the ball arrive before him, he retires to his team area. The umpire then declares him out, for having left the playing area.	F
29	R 8 Sec 2g 1(a)	B2 hits a slow ground ball down the 3 rd base line. F5 fields the ball on the run and throws towards 1 st . F3 has to come off the base and towards home plate, in an effort to make the catch. When this occurs, F3 collides with B2, who is running outside the 0.91m line and in fair territory. RULING: The umpire should declare obstruction and award B2 safe at 1 st .	F
30	R 8 Sec 2i & Effect	R1 on 3 rd base and R2 on 2 nd base, with one out. B4 mishits a slow ground ball along the 1 st base line in fair territory and all runners advance. F3 fields the ball and runs towards B4, who stops about 1m in front of F3. R1 crosses the plate. B4 then steps towards home plate as R2 rounds 3 rd base and continues on towards home. On seeing this, F3 ignores B4, and throws to F2, who tags R2 sliding to the plate. B4 advances to 1 st base. RULING: B4 is safe at 1 st base.	F
31	R 8 Sec 2i & Effect	Refer above scenario RULING: R2 is out on the tag at home plate	F
32	R 8 Sec 2i & Effect	Refer above scenario RULING: R1 scores	F
33	R 8 Sec 6f	When an obstructed runner is tagged out after passing the base he would have reached had there been no obstruction, he will remain out	T
34	R 6 Sec 3i	Observe the following pitcher. Is this a legal pitch? 	N

35	R 6 Sec 6b	No runners on. B5 has a Ball 2 Strike 1 count. The next pitch is fouled back to the backstop. On retrieving the ball, the catcher throws to F3. RULING: The umpire shall award an additional ball to the batter	T
36	R1 Sec 32	A fielder is any offensive player of the team on the field	F
37	R 11 Sec 1	A protest may never be made on an umpire's judgement call	T
38	R 3 sec 6fii Exception	The on-deck batter is not wearing a batting helmet and is noticed by the umpire. The umpire asks him to put one on, however he refuses. RULING: The umpire shall remove the on-deck batter from the game and advise him he may no longer participate again except as a coach	F
39	R 4 Sec 5i	The FLEX is like any other starting player, there are no limits as to the number of innings nor positions he can play on defense.	T
40	R 8 Sec 2l	The batter-runner is out when a fielder intentionally drops a foul fly ball with less than two out and a runner on 1 st base.	F
41	R 8 Sec 9 Effect g-j 3 & Note	A dead Ball Appeal can not be made before the umpire places a new ball into the game.	T
42	R 8 Sec 9m	R2 on 2 nd , when B3 hits a ground ball to F6. R2 leads off on the pitch and collides with F6 during his attempt to field the ball. F6 recovers and manages to throw B3 out at 1 st . R2 reaches 3 rd safely. RULING: All plays stand because F6 managed the out at 1 st .	F
43	R2 Sec 4 d	The area immediately behind home plate, between the batter's boxes and home plate, is part of the catcher's box.	F
44	R 8 Sec 2k	B1 hits a foul fly ball near the 3 rd base coach's box. F5 attempts to catch the ball but collides with the coach who has made no effort to get out of the way. The umpire judges that F5 could have caught the ball. RULING: This is a foul ball, as the coach is entitled to remain in the coach's box	F
45	R8 sec 2d Effect Exception	The batter-runner is out, when after being hit by a pitch outside the strike zone, he enters his team area to have the injury attended, prior to advancing to 1 st base.	F
46	R 8 sec 2e & Effect	Bases loaded and one out. Batter 5 hits a fly ball to F6. The umpire calls and signals Infield Fly. F6 drops the ball. So the runner on 3 rd leaves his base and scores. RULING: B5 is automatically out on the Infield Fly and the ball remains alive.	T
47	R 8 Sec 2i & Effect	One out, bases loaded. B4 mishits the ball along the 1 st base line and all runners advance. F3 fields the ball and runs towards B4, who stops. The runner from 3 rd crosses the plate. B4 then takes a step backwards towards home plate before being tagged by F3. RULING: B4 is out and the run scores	F
48	R 8 Sec 4g & Effect	R1 on 1 st with one out, when B3 hit a line drive to F6, who makes a diving catch. On the catch, R1 is caught halfway between 1 st and 2 nd bases, scrambling back to 1 st . F6, in an attempt to pick him off, throws the ball to F3 but it is wild and goes out of play. With the ball out of play, R1 is awarded 3 rd base. He stops, does not retouch 1 st and advances to 2 nd and 3 rd . When the ball is back in the infield, the defense legally appeal for R1 failing to retouch 1 st base. RULING: The appeal is denied and R1 remains on 3 rd	F
49	R 8 Sec 7b & Effect 3	R3 on 3 rd , with one out. F3 is fielding close to the foul line. Half way between home and 1 st . B5 slaps the ball past F3 and it is fielded by F4. R3 advances toward home on the hit, as F4 throws to F2. In an effort to get out of the way of F4's throw to home, F3 hinders B5 who is running to 1 st , causing him to stumble. R3 crosses home plate safely, as F2, seeing B5 has not yet reached 1 st , throws the ball to F4, now covering 1 st . The ball beats B5, who is called out. RULING: The umpire should allow the play to stand.	F
50	R 8 Sec 4e	No runner may legally return to touch a missed base, or one left illegally, after a following runner has scored.	T
51	R 8 Sec 2l Note	R1 on 1 st with none out. B2 hits a pop fly to F4, who could easily catch it. However, in an attempt to create a double play, F4 lets the ball fall untouched to the ground in front of him.	F

		RULING: This is considered an intentionally dropped fly ball
52	R 8 Sec 4d & Effect	When two runners occupy a base simultaneously, the runner who first legally occupied the base shall be entitled to it, unless forced to advance.	T
53	R 8 Sec 2m 2	It is always the runner closest to home plate who is called out, when a runner, who is not yet out, deliberately crashes into a fielder about to make a throw, in order to prevent an obvious double play.	F
54	R3 Sec 6d	Observe the following catcher. Does he comply with Rule 3 Sec 6d? 	N
55	R 1 Sec 40c	F5 may wear a helmet whilst fielding, provided it has two ear flaps	F
56	R 1 Sec 46b	A player returning to the game in a batting position other than the one they originally occupied is considered an illegal re-entry Exception The Flex Player	T
57	R 8 Sec 1d & Effect or R7 Sec 6l	The batter's bat comes into contact with the catcher's glove RULING: The umpire should always rule catcher's obstruction	F
58	R 1 Sec 101	A player forced to leave the line-up due to blood is referred to as a withdrawn player.	T
59	R 1 Sec 37g	A legally batted ball that hits the pitchers plate, then goes directly into foul territory after passing a fielder standing in front of 1 st or 3 rd base, is a fair ball	F
60	R 1 Sec 51	In the top of the 5th inning 2 out White leads Green 8-0. #61 (F4) is required to be removed from the diamond due to bleeding. The White coach has no substitutes, so advises the Plate Umpire #10 (the DP) will be the replacement player. RULING: The plate umpire should not permit this, as a replacement player may not be in the current line-up	T
61	R 8 Sec 7g Exception 2	A fair batted ball deflects off a fielder's glove and enters a dead ball area, in foul territory. RULING: All runners should be awarded two bases from the last base held at the time the ball became dead.	F
62	R 7 Sec 2c	Red Team line-up is: Aceman, Bookman, Carter & Dench. It is Bookman's turn to bat next. Carter bats instead and hits a single and remains at 1 st base. Dench then enters the batter's box but before F1 delivers the pitch, the defense appeal for Carter batting out of order. RULING: The umpire declares Bookman out and removes Carter from 1 st base to bat again.	T

63	R 6 Sec 6b Exception 3	There is a runner on 3 rd base. B4 is at bat with ball 2, strike 1. B4 swings at but does not connect with strike 2. F2 returns the pitched ball to F5. RULING: There is no penalty.	T
64	R 8 Sec 9c 1-3	A force out can only be accomplished by the fielder, in possession of the ball, touching the base to which the runner is forced to advance	F
65	R 8 Sec 1a & Effect	R2 on 3 rd with none out. B3 bunts the ball to F5 and R2 becomes caught in a run down play between home & 3 rd . B3, who is halfway to 1 st , sees that R2 is trapped so, in an attempt to draw a throw, turns around and runs back towards, but does not touch, home plate. R2 is then tagged as B3 turns around again and runs safely to 1 st . RULING B3 is out for running the bases in reverse order	F
66	R 8 Sec 9b & Effect	Refer above scenario RULING: R2 is out on the tag	T
67	R 8 Sec 7i 1 & Effect	R1 on 1 st . B2 hits a fair ground ball to F5 who, in the act of fielding, accidentally kicks the ball into the dugout. At the time of the ball being declared dead, R1 has rounded 2 nd , and B2 has not yet made 1 st . RULING: R1 is awarded home and B2 is awarded 2 nd .	F
68	R 8 Sec 9g & Effect	One out, R1 on 3 rd , when B2 flies out to F9. R1 fails to retouch at 3 rd before scoring. F9 throws the ball to F5, who is standing on the base. F5 does not say anything, tosses the ball to the offensive base coach and runs towards his dugout with the rest of the defense. RULING: This is a legal play, so R1 is out	T
69	R 1 Sec 29c	It is considered a fair ball, when a legally batted ball first touches 3 rd base before bouncing just outside the foul line, and then rolling into fair territory.	T
70	R 1 Sec 29c	B1 hits a fly ball that lands on the ground in foul territory, a short distance before 1 st base. The ball spins back and hits the fair portion of the double base. F3 then fields the ball and touches the base before B1 arrives. RULING: This is a fair ball	T
71	R 8 Sec 7f Effect Exception 1	R7 on 1 st base with one out, when B9 hits a long ground ball to F7. R7 advances to and rounds 2 nd base on the way to 3 rd . B9 rounds 1 st and is obstructed by F3, so continues on and stops at 2 nd base (the base he would have made in the judgement of the umpire had no obstruction occurred). F7 then fumbles the ball, so B9 attempts to make 3 rd base but is easily tagged out sliding into the base. R7 is advancing toward, but has not yet touched home at the time of the tag. RULING: B9 should be awarded 3 rd on the obstruction, and R7 should be awarded home.	F
72	R 8 Sec 7b	Observe the following catcher. This catcher is blocking home plate without the ball. This is an example of obstruction. 	T

73	R 8 Sec 7g & Effect Exception 1	R1 on 1 st , B2 singles to F9. R1 advances toward 3 rd , as the throw from F9 beats him to the base by 0.91m (3ft). F5 is holding the ball and R1 slides, knocking the ball from the glove & out of play. At the time the ball goes out of play, R1 has touched 3 rd and is advancing toward home, and B2 has rounded 2 nd . RULING: R1 is awarded home and B2 is awarded 3 rd .	T
74	R 5 Sec 5a 1	A team must only be ahead 7 runs in the bottom of the 5 th inning for the game to be declared over.	T
75	R 8 Sec 7b Exception 1a	Obstructed runners may be called out, on a proper appeal, if they fail to touch awarded bases in legal order, providing the obstruction did not prevent the runner from touching the base.	T
76	R 8 Sec 5c	Runners are entitled to advance, with liability to be put out, when the ball is thrown into fair or foul territory and is not blocked.	T
77	R 8 Sec 7b Effect 4 Exception	The rules state that no runner may be called out between the two bases where he was obstructed. There is only one exception to this rule.	F
78	R 8 Sec 6b	B1 hits a ground ball to F6, who throws to F3 to try for the out. However the ball gets away from F3. B1 touches, and runs past, 1 st and remains in fair territory and turns to his left, before returning directly to 1 st base. F3 having retrieved the ball, then tags B1 prior to his retouching the fair portion of 1 st base. RULING: B1 is not out.	T
79	R 8 Sec 7b & Effect 3 & 4	B1 is awarded 1 st base on Ball 4 and the ball is returned to F1, who is in the pitcher's circle. B1 touches and runs past 1 st . He is then obstructed by F3, who does not have the ball while returning to the base. On hearing the obstruction call, B1 moves slowly toward 2 nd but is tagged off base by F4. RULING: As the obstruction call does not automatically entitle a runner to an extra base, B1 advances at his own risk. The out should stand	F
80	R 8 Sec 10m	A runner, who is hit by a fair batted ball while in contact with a base, is not out unless he intentionally interferes with the ball, or a fielder making a play.	T
81	R 8 Sec 2k Exception	R2 on 3 rd and B4 is at bat with a count of Ball 2. B4 hits a high foul fly ball towards F5, who moves into foul territory to catch it. R2, who started for home on the hit, returns to re-touch his base but, in doing so, collides with F5 in foul territory causing the ball to drop to the ground. F5 could easily have caught the ball. RULING: B4 is out on the interference and R2 remains at 3 rd .	F
82	R 8 Sec 2i	B1 receives ball 4 and advances toward 1 st base. Halfway, he drops his batting glove, so he stops, turns around, takes two steps back toward home plate and picks up the glove. He then proceeds to 1 st . RULING: Since B1 did not step backward to avoid a tag or a play on him; he is safe at 1 st .	T
83	R 8 Sec 3 & Effect	Two out, R4 on 2 nd . B7 is at bat with a 2 ball & 2 strike count, when he hits a long fly ball to left field. F7 uses a mitt to catch the fly ball and the plate umpire notices the illegal act. RULING: As this is an appeal play, the umpire should declare B7 out on the catch.	T
84	R 8 Sec 3 & Effect	Refer above scenario As the fielders are running in, the Offensive coach notices that F7 is using a mitt, so appeals to the umpire that the catch is not legal. RULING: The umpire should uphold the coach's request, return R4 to 2 nd base and bring B7 back to bat with ball 2 strike 2 (the count prior to the illegal catch)	T
85	R 8 Sec 3 & Effect	Refer above scenario RULING: F7 and the illegal glove should be removed from the game.	F
86	R 5 Sec 8b	In the top of the 2 nd inning, the coach crosses the foul line to speak to all of his players except the pitcher who he sends aside. On his return to the dugout, the umpire charges the coach with a defensive conference. The coach insists this should not be a conference as he did not speak to his pitcher.	F
87	R 6 Sec 5d	Is it legal for a pitcher to wear a batting glove on his glove hand?	Y
88	R 6 Sec 6b	B1 has a count of 1 strike, with no runners on base. The F1 pitches a strike but the ball gets away from the catcher. F5 retrieves the ball and throws to F6 before throwing the ball back to F1. RULING: The umpire should rule an additional ball to the batter, making the count ball 1, strike 2.	F
89	R 1 Sec 37 Note 1	A foul fly shall be judged according to the position of the ball, not the position of the fielder when they first touch or subsequently catch the ball.	T

90	R 6 Sec 10 c	R2 on 2 nd base and B3 at bat with a ball 2, strike 2 count. F1 delivers the next pitch as R2 is called out for leaving base too early. The pitch is called a strike. This is a double play?	F
