New non-travelling reserve named

Coach Venita Hokai has included 19 year old Melbourne based player Jessica Hollet into the non-travelling Reserves for the NZ Under 19 Women's Softball Team (Junior White Sox). Hollett replaces removed Auckland player Rebbecca Hicks. Hollett first caught Coach Hokai's eye while playing against the Junior White Sox in the Waverley Easter Carnival for her home town association and again while she was catching for Victoria's Gillies Shield team in Perth earlier this year.

The next outing in the preparation for the Junior Women's Softball World Series later this is is a training camp on the 23-25 September 2011. The JWS will be in Napier / Hastings as guests of Hawkes Bay Softball Association. Games vs the NZ White Sox are planned.
