

Softball and Regional Sports Trusts in Partnership

A Sport Wellington Perspective

How Softball Can Engage Their Local Regional Sports Trusts More Effectively

What is a Regional Sports Trust (RST)?

What does an RST offer?

How can Softball engage with their RST?

17 Regional Sport Trusts

Independent Body for Sport and Physical Activity

85 Regional Sport Organisations
700 Clubs

Vision

More People Participating and Achieving in Sport

Purpose

To Increase Sport's Capability and Sustainability

Community Reach

Sports Organisations

Facility and Event Providers

Territorial Authorities (9)

Government Agencies

Ethnic Groups

Sector Support Agencies

Education Sectors

Health Agencies

Community Groups

Recreation Organisations

Sponsors/Funders

Media

Public

What We Do

Award Recognition

Club Education
Workshops

RSO forums/luncheons/
breakfast/assistance

Coaching
CoachForce

Student Sport
Ambassadors

Round the Bays Fun Run

Regular Newsletters

Facilities for Hire

Sport Wellington Region Website

www.sportwellington.org.nz

List Your Organisation

List Your Event

Award Recognition

Funding – links for local and national funders

Publications – Online Connecting Sport

Workshops

All about SWR

Challenges Facing Sport

Governance – Sport Owns Sport

Alignment – NSO ← RSO ← Club

Planning – Proper Planning Prevents Poor Performance

Volunteers – Acknowledge, Develop and Reward

Coaching – More Coaches and Better Coaches

Funding – High Dependency on Gaming Trust Funding

Casual Play – Is this Available in your Sport?

Sport Working with Sport

Softballs Engagement With Their Local RST

Familiarise with RST
Website

Get to know RST
Personnel

Support Programs/Workshops/
Functions

Leverage off RST initiatives – Awards etc

Educate your clubs on what
RST's offer

Working together can make a difference

Summary

What is a Regional Sports Trust (RST)?

What does an RST offer?

How can Softball engage with their RST?

Thank You Softball For Being Part Of The Sporting Community

