Game Highlights:

The NZ Golden Homes Black Sox have been knocked out in the semi final of the Hill United Shootout in St Catherines, Ontario, Canada, losing 5-1 to Argentina. Argentina jumped out to a 2-0 lead in the bottom of the second inning with an automatic home-run with a runner on base. This feat was repeated in the fifth inning with another Argentine two run automatic home-run to put the score out to 4-0. The Argentinians continued to consistently hit the Black Sox pitching accumulating another run in the bottom of the sixth inning to lead 5-0.

Thomas Enoka the best of the Black Sox hitters throughout the weekend pulled one back for the Black Sox in the top of the seventh inning with a big automatic home-run over centre field off the very strong Argentine pitching.

Argentina will play the powerful Hill United team, who beat the Black Sox 8-7 on Friday night in the final.

The Black Sox now move to Saskatoon, the venue of the 2015 World Championship to play exhibition games on Tue and Wed night at the Bob Van Impe Stadium and finish their North American tour with a tournament on Calgary the following weekend.
