Game Highlights:

The NZ Golden Homes Black Sox were made to work hard throughout in their first encounter in Saskatoon against local champions the Saskatoon Diamondbacks. The Black Sox went ahead 2-0 at the top of the third inning courtesy of back to back singles to Ben Enoka and Jerome Raemaki who were both hit home by a Donny Hale triple to the fence.

The Saskatoon Diamondbacks leveled the scores at 2-2 courtesy of a big home run to Canadian International Brennan Pokoyoway in what would be his first of two automatic home runs on the night.

The power of the Black Sox bats came to the fore in the top of the fourth inning with a line drive automatic home-run to Wellington outfielder Wayne Lauu. This was followed up Josh Thomson making base on an error and was scored by a Tyron Bartorillo automatic home-run over right field.

The Black Sox continued with their good hitting against strong pitching by Canadian squad member Trevor Ethier with two more runs in the top of the sixth inning to eventually run out the winners 7-5 in a good tight game of Softball.
