

National Team Game Analysis

New Zealand: Black Sox v Saskatchewan Astros Tournament: Calgary Invitational

Game Start: 11.30am Attendance (estimate): 600

Score by Innings

Teams	1	2	3	4	5	6	7	8	R	H	E
Saskatchewan Astros	0	0	2
New Zealand Black Sox	4	7	6

Game Highlights:

The NZ Golden Homes Black Sox sent a clear message to all competing teams at the Calgary Invitational Tournament, that they mean business as they thumped the Saskatchewan Astros 17-2 in their opening game, with the mercy rule being enforced.

Captain Nathan Nukunuku and his fellow infielder Tyron Bartorillo were the pick of the Black Sox hitters, both with two automatic home runs. The power with the bat and speed of the Black Sox hitters were too much for the Saskatchewan Astros as the Black Sox amassed their 17 runs in just three innings.

Josh Pettett hand another tidy outing on the pitching mound, although to the delight of the local fans was hit out of the park with a runner on base at the top of the third inning.

Pitching data for both teams

Name:	IP	H	R	SO	BB	HR's
Name: Josh Pettett	3	2	2	6	0	1
Name:
Name:
Name:
Name:

IP = Innings pitched, H = Hits, SO = Strike outs, BB = Walks, HR = Home runs