Game Highlights:

This game was a critical one for New Zealand in their quest to get to post round-robin games. Both pitchers had a battle on the mound, with Michal Tangaroa having the upper hand. Charlotte Pointon added some excitement to the game with a spectacular diving catch in right field foul territory for the last out of the 2nd inning. There was some top batting from Ellie Cooper and Te Reo Powhiri Matautia, both with 2 from 3, and also a triple from Brooke McManus. The win will give the White Sox some confidence heading into their game against Australia tomorrow.
