

Softball Roleplay

GET IN A SMALL GROUP AND ROLE-PLAY ONE OF THE FOLLOWING SITUATIONS. ACT OUT THE WHOLE THING AND THEN ADD IN YOUR ORIGINAL IDEAS.

It's Saturday afternoon and there is a really important match on television. You have been looking forward to it all week. You are just about to start watching the game when some friends of your parents arrive. They are not interested in softball and your parents want to sit in the lounge and talk to them. There are no other television sets in the house. SOLVE THIS PROBLEM.

It is the dying moment in an important softball game you are playing in. Your team is losing and you need a home run to win. The ball heads your way and a player makes a run around the bases. They are almost there and you drop the ball! HOW SHOULD YOU REACT AND THOSE AROUND YOU?

You have just finished a game of softball and the team you were playing has thrashed you 5-0.

What makes it worse is that their team were bad sports. They called out to you and said nasty things. You are about to line up to shake hands. WHAT ARE YOU GOING TO DO?

Every time the batter at a softball game goes to bat, the crowd boos. All your friends are booing and shouting, but you have been told by your parents never to boo. You feel a little left out. DO YOU START BOOING OR DO YOU DO SOMETHING ELSE?

You take your four-year old sister to get a hotdog at a crowded softball game. You buy the hotdog and when you turn around, your sister isn't there. You can't find your way back to your family either. WHAT HAPPENS?

You are late to practice because your mum was late taking you. When you get to practice, the coach tells you off and puts you on the bench for Saturday. DO YOU SAY ANYTHING OR PROTEST IN SOME WAY?
