

Men's and Women's International Softball Broadcast

In a historic coup SKY TV will broadcast men's and women's international softball commencing 3 Feb at the Asia Pacific Cup through to the last day of the TAB Challenge Cup, 10 Feb.

SKY Sports will cover the final day of the Asia Pacific Cup 3 Feb in Blacktown, the softball venue of the 2000 Olympic games. The broadcast will then continue with three days of the inaugural Summer Slam event, 4 – 6 February.

The spotlight then turns to ELE Stadium at Rosedale Park Albany where the TAB Challenge Cup will commence Friday, 8 Feb. Six games will be covered over three days featuring the 5:30 and 8pm night games on Friday and Saturday night along with the finals the following day.

Fox Sports will reciprocate the live feed back to Australia for a 9 day feast of international softball.

The number of games and quality of coverage is unprecedented and truly welcomed by the softball community on both sides of the Tasman.
