The Golden Homes Black Sox have won the Bob Law Memorial in Vancouver by beating The Golden Petro Hawks 9-3.

In a repeat of the Calgary Stampede City Invitational final the Black Sox have won back to back tournaments as they now head to the World Championships in Saskatoon commencing this Wednesday.

Nik Hayes was handed the ball from coach Sorenson throwing 6 innings and facing 25 hitters. Hayes gave up 5 hits and struck out 5 hitters for his efforts. Kurt Schollum came in for the close taking the last three outs of the game.

Offensively Tyson Byrnes and Wayne Laulu went 2 for 2 but it was the rookie sensation Cole Evans who took the lime light going 2-3 including an in the park homerun to the right field corner.

Earlier The Hawks had caused an upset beating local favourites South Hill Giants in a pitchers battle 1-0. The Giants stacked with 7 Canadian players and spearheaded by Venezuelan pitcher Ramone Jones were expected to reach the final. However Jones who was recorded at throwing 140 km's earlier in the tournament never received any game time from the Giants Head Coach.

The Black Sox will enjoy a well earned day off tomorrow before flying to Saskatoon for a double header on the Wednesday night.
